The Supreme Court Sustains Demurrer and Dismisses Bill.

STATE COUNCIL JUNIORS WIN

Judge Keith Rules That a Carbon Copy of Typewritten Letter is Valid.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., June 15 .- Among the opinions handed down to-day by the Supreme Court of Appeals, which will be of special interest to Richmond and Petersburg people, is that prepared by Judge Buchanan in the case of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company vs. Fisher et als., in which the Hustings Court of the city of Petersburg was reversed and the demurrer sustained to the complainants' bill.

The complainants in the lower court filed their bill on behalf of themselves and other stockholders, bordholders and creditors of the defendant company, alleging wrong-doing on behalf of Frank Jay Gould, who, with his sister, owned a majority of the stock of said company, and asked the appointment of a receiver.

On the first ground of the demurrer assigned the court, if soing full into the

On the first ground of the demurrer assigned the court, if going full into the law as to jurisdiction of equity in such cases, holds that in order to entitle complaint to relief at the hands of a court of equity, such facts as conclusive must be set forth as will show that application had been made to the directors first, then to the stockholders, and their failure to give the relief or circumstances and facts showing that such application would have been useless; that the charge that the directors were colluding with the wrong deed and will not perform its duty is a charge of fraud, and that fraud being a conclusion of law arising from the facts, that the facts out of which the fraud arises must be alleged as well as proved.

of which the fraud arises must be alleged as well as proved.

The second ground for demurrer was that the trustee, and not the bondholders, was the proper party to bring the suit.

Judge Buchanan, distinguishing between the case at bar and Gibert vs. Washington Railroad Company, 33 Grat., says that this is the first time this question has been presented to the court, and holds that of the happening of the condition which entities the bondholders to foreclosure, the trustee is the proper party to sue, unless the bill alleges such a state of facts as would show that a state of facts as would show that the trustee was in such position that he Junior's State Council Wins.

In the case of National Council, J. O.
U. A. M., vs. State Council, J. O. U.
A. M., vs. State Council, J. O. U.
A. M., Judge Keith, in delivering the opinion of the court, holds that the charter granted the latter order is valid, and does not infringe upon vested personal or property rights, and that the act is prospective in its operation put the matter beyond the reach of controversy by amending the decree, so as to provide that nothing therein contained shall in any way affect any such right as may have accrued prior to the 17th day of February, 1900, the date of the charter. Junior's State Council Wins.

Carbon Copy Valid. Carbon Copy Valid.

In the case of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company vs. F. W. Stock and Sons, which was an action brought to recover damages for loss and injury to flour shipped from some point in the State of Michigan to Phoebus, Va., the doctrine of scintilla evidence heretofore prevailing in this State is overruled in the opinion delivered by Judge Keith. In this case, the court also holds that a carbon copy of a letter written on a typewriter made by the same impression is a duplicate of the letter, and the rule requiring the production of the original, as applied to letter press coples before it can be used as evidence, before it can be used as evidence,

A NOTABLE SUIT. Story of Last Fight of Fisher

Against Gould Interests. Against Gould Interests.

The suit of George E. Fisher and associates against the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, Frank Jay Gould and Miss Heien Miller Gould, attracted widespread attention. The bill was filed June 16, 1894, in the Hustings Court of Petersburg. It contained charges of fraudulent transactions on the part of Arrand Miss Gould in their dealings with the company and that the court appoint a receiver for the Virginia Passenger and Fower Company.

According to the defendants this was the cameron, of Petersburg, receiver of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, Frontihis decision the Virginia Passenger and Power Company appealed. The reversal yesterday by the Supreme Court leaves the property in the hands of the Federal Court and its receivers.

CAUSES JOY HERE. Supreme Court Pleases Member of Local Order J. O. U. A. M. Members of the local councils, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, in Richmond, are delighted at the decision of the Supreme Court of the State in upholding their contention before the Chancery Court of this city that they are not bound to pay additional assessments unless they be at the same time given larger representation in the National Council. The matter was warmly contested in the Chancery Court by both sides, and the local councils, known as the "insurgents," won out, The case was appealed, and yesterday at Wytheville the lower court was sustained.

The local councils, or "insurgents," as they are called, have an Independent charter from the Legislature of Virgina, and they hold that they are capable of taking care of their own business. The fight has been made in several other States and in each the National Council has lost, Members of the local councils, Junio
